Table of Lecture Fees

Currency: New Taiwan Dollars

Items		Maximum Rate Per Session
External Lecturer	Domestic professionals/ scholars	2,000
	Employees of government agencies (institutes) or universities who have affiliation relation with the host government agency (institute) or university	1,500
Internal Lecturer	Employees of host government agency (institute) or university	1,000
Application	1. The table above is applicable to the lecturer who delivers lectures invited by a government agency (institute) or university (both hereinafter referred to as the host government agency) to give speech in seminars, conferences, trainings or educational courses. However, as for inviting foreign expert or scholar coming to Taiwan to deliver a lecture, the amount of fees per session can be determined autonomously by the host government agency based on the lecturer's international reputation, academic status, curriculum contents, the difficulty of engagement, and other relevant conditions. 2. The fee for the lecture's assistant who facilitates and delivers the lecture should be half of fee for the lecturer in the same session. 3. The fee for the chief examiner or interviewer to carry out interviews, class placement test, or subject test in the training or educational courses may be paid as the lecturer; the fee for the class proctor and staff member may be paid as lecturer's assistant.
Supplementary Provisions	1. The above payment standard is maximum rate to the internal and external lecturer. The host government agency may determine its own standard considering the budget and actual needs. 2. The affiliation relation in this table is referred to the subordinate relation between the government agencies below the second level of central government and local government specified in the applicable organic law. 3. The lecture time should be 50 minutes per session or consecutive lecture time is counted as 90 minutes 2 sessions. The amount of payment should be reduced by half for any insufficient lecture time. 4. When the host government agency holds keynote speeches, the standard of payment for the lecturer in different speeches may be determined on the lecturer's international (domestic) reputation, academic status, content of the speech and the difficulty of engagement, and relevant conditions. 5. The host government agency may, refer to the relevant travel regulations to reimburse the external lecturer's travel and lodging expenses according to the actual needs. 6. Invited lecturer required by the host government agency to write or edit teaching materials, may be paid for teaching materials fees within 70% of the payment to the lecture. 7. Public colleges, universities and Academia Sinica, with special academic development or lecturer engagement, may set up its own payment standard. 8. This table is effective since February 1, 2018.	